JAPS 'LIVE' WIRE HEMS IN BRITISH

TIENTSIN, June 19 (INS)—Japanese authorities announced today they had electrified thearbed wire entanglements enclosing the British concession in a surpri move apparently intended to prevent any possible smuggling of food in the area as supplies diminished and a serious shortage appeared certain.

The Japanese announcement said the 30-odd miles of wire around the British area had been charged with a 1000-volt current at 10 o'clock tonight to "prevent untoward incidents."

The announcement further aggravated the already extremely serious Anglo-Japanese tension.

At the same time Japanese military authorities warned if Great Britain imposes economic sanctions on Japan they "might consider themselves released from any obligations to respect Britain's rights and interests in China."

Simultaneously it was learned the Japanese consul-general flatly refused to countenance a British request that rigid searching of English citizens entering and leaving the concession be relaxed.

The British request was made after several nationals, including a woman, were roughly handled by police.

Obviously fearing Japanese reprisals, cowed Chinese vegetable merchants refused to sell supplies to British residents.

This added to the difficulties of the more than 5000 foreigners affected by the Japanese blockade.

CHARGES DISCRIMINATION

British Consul Edgar Jamieson alleged discrimination against British residents by the Japanese military. Jamieson requested that the British be treated on an equal basis with Americans and other foreigners.

Jamieson complained about the shortage of foodstuffs, especially vegetables, meat and milk in the British concession and requested relaxation of Japanese restrictions on foodstuff shipments.

The Japanese consul-general replied Japanese authorities had taken independent action only after British concession authorities "had refused to co-operate with Japan in maintaining peace and order in north China."

BULLETIN

TOKYO, June 19 (INS)—Anglo-Japanese tension shifted to Wuhu on the Yangtze river north of Shanghai today when Japanese authorities vigorously protested to British naval authorities over alleged action of the British gunboat Scarab in forcibly landing goods at Wuhu.

2 Doctors, Woman Held for 'Surgery' In Death of Girl, 21

Victorious in a court fight over custody of his three small children only 10 days ago, Dr. Daniel E. Nyman of Jason street, Arlington, was held today in $500 in Malden court, charged with attempting to procure illegal surgery.

Held with him—and all in connection with last week's death of pretty Evelyn Alice Spencer, 21, Columbia road, South Boston—were Dr. John A. Carter, of the same address in Jason street, and Mrs. Anna L. Myers of Pleasant street, Medford, mother of three children.

Bail for Dr. Carter was fixed at $10,000 and that for Mrs. Myers at $1000.

HINT "OTL" 'S CASE"

In arriving at higher bail for Dr. Carter, the court was told by Police Captain Charles H. Ewell of Medford that the physician "may be involved in another case."

Judge Elbridge G. Davis set July 6 as the date for hearing.

Miss Spencer, a graduate of South Boston High School in 1936, died Thursday night at Carney Hospital, her mother then believing her to have been the victim of an automobile accident.

According to police charges, however, illegal surgery was performed on the girl two months ago in a Medford house.

Yesterday the girl's body was buried, and services for her were conducted today at the Gate of Heaven Church, South Boston.

WON HIS THREE CHILDREN

Dr. Nyman, on June 9, was victorious in his court fight to take custody of his three small children away from his divorced wife, now Mrs. Irene Terrio of Centennial avenue, Revere, an attractive former artist's model.

Judge Arthur E. Beane, in Middlesex probate court, removed the boy and two girls from custody of the woman in whose charge they were given at the time of the divorce in 1936.

Denying the mother's petition for custody of her children, Judge Beane granted the petition of Dr. Nyman that they be placed in custody of Mrs. Terrio's mother, with whom the children's mother testified she had not been friendly for years.

ACCUSE STUDENT IN HORSE DOPING

Accused of having furnished a drug allegedly used in an attempt to dope a race horse at Suffolk Downs, June 14, a Cambridge medical student was taken into East Boston court today on a charge of conspiracy.

The defendant, Fred Diforio, 28, was arrested at his home in the Newtowne apartments, federal model housing colony, near Central square, Cambridge.

Judge Charles J. Brown held him in $2000 for a continued hearing June 27.

The charge against Diforio grew out of arrest, June 14, of Arthur Hayes, 39, of West Rutland street, South End, and Harold Johnson, 23, of West Springfield street, South End.

They were seized in a stable at Suffolk Downs after they had allegedly attempted to feed a horse a doped apple.

Police said a tablet of caffeine, strong heart stimulant, was found in Johnson's haitband.

Both Johnson and Hayes were held in $1000 for June 27 hearing.

SWELL SPOT for a honeymoon is the 23rd annual convention of Kiwanis International, decided Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. Naylor of San Antonio, Tex. So the newlyweds posed proudly at Mechanics Building.

Kiwanians Hear Plea For Fuller Liberties

Striving for fuller religious, political and individual liberty, more than 4000 Kiwanians thronged Mechanics Building today for formal opening sessions of the 23rd annual convention of Kiwanis International.

The visitors had come from every state in the Union, with many others from abroad, to hear a stirring rededication speech by the Rev. Daniel A. Poling of Philadelphia Temple.

After urging that America make every gesture toward world peace, Dr. Poling said:

"America must make clear the fact that our democracy is against bitterness and hatred, against the ravishment of minorities, against the suppression of civil liberties and free worship and against the destruction of a world security through dishonored international agreements."

Today's sessions were opened with invocation by the Rev. Michael J. Ahern, S.J., of Weston College.

DEDICATES CONVENTION

The convention was then dedicated by Kiwanian President H. G. Hatfield of Oklahoma City to the young citizens of America.

In speaking in behalf of America's youth, Sanford Bates, director of the Boys' Club of America and former Massachusetts prison head, stressed the importance on training the nation's men of tomorrow. He said:

"It is to the youth we must look forward to to carry on the destinies of the future," Bates said.

"The building of young citizens is the most important construction job facing the business men of America today. And where throughout the length and breadth of the land could one speak on this subject with more confidence than before the Kiwanis International? Your motto

Mystery Girl Air Dash in Lobby Trial

NEW YORK, June 19 (AP)—An early-morning airplane trip to Washington by William P. Buckner, Jr., and an unidentified woman was paid for, a banker testified in federal court today, with a $43.80 check drawn on a bank where Buckner had no account.

Buckner, promoter and man-about-town, is on trial charged with conspiracy and using the mails to defraud in connection with the alleged manipulation of Philippine railway bonds.

George H. Phillips of the Bank of the Manhattan Company legal department testified Buckner had no personal account at the bank, although the Philippine Railway bondholders protective committee of which Buckner was chairman, had an account.

W. P. Buckner, Jr.

$1.19 IN BANK

The balance in this account at the time the check was drawn, Phillips said, was $1.19.

Phillips' appearance on the stand was a prelude to calling several Hollywood notables to testify to the movieland activities of Buckner.

Among them was Everett Crosby, Bing Crosby's brother and business manager, who was subpoenaed as he stepped off the Queen Mary today, home from a European honeymoon. He was expected to tell how he advised his brother against purchase of the Philippine Railway bond.

OTHER STARS CALLED

The cast of witnesses called included Frank Morgan, radio and screen actor; possibly Loretta Young, whom Buckner named as his fiancee at the time of his arrest; Miriam Hopkins, Herbert Marshall and Binnie Barnes.

Among those on trial with Buckner is Felipe Buencamino, Philippine legislator.

From the giggling showgirls and a blase society woman—Mrs. Betsy Schurman of Englewood, N. J.—the government drew testimony that Buckner entertained lavishly in Washington.

SHE NAMED WALSH

Mrs. Schurman named among his guests Senator David I. Walsh (D.) of Massachusetts, who introduced a resolution concerning the bonds, on the ground of constituents' interests, after Buckner had Massachusetts bondholders shower the senator with telegrams.

Buckner smiled and joked throughout the first week of the trial. In reply to the prosecution's charge that his "beauty lobby" in Washington was supplied with "enough liquor to get a regiment drunk," he wisecracked to bystanders:

"How many men are there in a regiment?"

WOMAN HAMMER SLAYER, 3 OTHERS BREAK FROM JAIL

MARYSVILLE, O., June 19 (AP)—Mrs. Velma West, who hammered her husband to death 12 years ago and then went to a bridge party, escaped today from the Ohio Reformatory for Women here.

Three other prisoners escaped with the blonde 33-year-old slayer of Thomas Edward West, 26, whose fully-clothed body, bound hand and foot, was found on a bed in their home near Cleveland, Dec. 7, 1927.

MRS. VELMA WEST
Hammer Slayer—Flees Prison

She confessed she killed her husband of two years when he refused to accompany her to the party.

She struck him with a hammer four or five times, tied and bound him, washed her hands and jumped into her green roadster and drove to Cleveland for the party.

There she sang blues songs, played the piano and dealt cards far into the night.

Sheriff Homer Roosa's office said a truck driver reported he saw three women near Marysville about 5 a. m. and the sheriff said he believed they were three of the fugitives, who were discovered missing at the 6 a. m. cell inspection.

"Oh, my God, don't tell me that!" exclaimed Mrs. West's mother, Mrs. Bert Van Woert, when told at Cleveland of the escape.

"What can I do? It can't be. She told me she would never do anything that would hurt me. Are you sure it was Velma?"

Mrs. West was permitted to plead guilty to a second degree murder charge and was sentenced to from five years to life imprisonment. The Ohio parole board refused last year to give her freedom.

She left a note saying she knew her chances for release were gone and she wanted "one last good time."

The note, addressed to the reformatory superintendent, Mrs. Marguerite Reilley, expressed sorrow for the escape and said if the incident "hurt" the superintendent too much, she would return.

"Next to my life I love Mrs. Reilley best," she wrote.

Stork Fools Fortel; His Boy Baby Late

NEWARK, N. J., June 19 (AP)—Beth Israel Hospital sheltered a brand new baby boy today, but he was not related to Sidney A. Fortel, self-styled sex pre-determinator, who predicted March 7 his wife would bear a son June 17 or 18.

Hospital attaches revealed the stork had stopped by to deliver one bundle of masculinity yesterday while Mrs. Fortel, 25 and blonde, sat patiently at home with her husband and their unpredicted five-year-old son, Marvin.

At midnight, the deadline which Fortel set three months ago expired and tere were no indications how soon the Fortels would acquire another offspring, although Fortel insisted that when the baby does arrive it's certainly be a boy.

Feverish but firm in his belief in the "secret formula" which he said was the result of 20 years of study, Fortel hastily checked his records in an attempt to determine where his calculations went astray.

"I guess I hadn't figured on Mrs. Fortel's strength," he said.

"I can say now," he continued, "that the baby will be delayed about ten days—which means my son will be born either on June 26 or 27.

"The time element isn't so important anyhow. The important thing is that it will be a boy, and I'm still 100 per cent certain that my formula will work."

'Bachelors-Maids Day' Applauded By Saltonstall

Observance of "Bachelors-Maidens' Day" on June 25 got a warm word of approval today from Gov. Saltonstall.

"It is well," he said, "for us to remember that untold numbers of persons out of matrimony do much more family welfare and are frequently called upon to serve in the capacity of 'other parents.'

"Untiring, also, are their efforts in the interest of community and country. They represent the bulwark of many of our finest endeavors and devote a life's unselfish service that others may enjoy living."

DAD OF 3 REPORTED MISSING

A mother of three little children, whose husband has been missing under mysterious circumstances since last Friday, today appealed to the Boston American to help bring him back to his family.

"It's so strange I can't help worrying," Mrs. Lawrence Morrison of Dolphin avenue, Beachmont, explained.

"The part that makes me afraid is that, although he didn't come home Friday, when I called his office Saturday they said he had not been at work all week.

"He had been getting up every morning and going out as if he were working and coming home every night—till Friday—but when he left home he'd been calling his office every day and saying that I was sick and he wouldn't be at work.

"I haven't been sick at all. But I am now, really sick, since he's gone."

The missing man, Morrison, is 26 years old, five feet seven and a half inches, weighs 129 pounds, is of fair complexion with blue eyes, wears glasses, has a thin face, brown hair, and was wearing an oxford gray suit and hat when he vanished.

He was employed as a plate maker in a Boston printing plant.

At his home are his pretty brown haired wife and his three babies, Lawrence, five; Marjorie, three, and Charles, 11 months.

Prince Welcomed To Madison, Wis.

MADISON, Wis., June 19 (INS)—Center of the largest settlement of Norwegian residents in the new world, Madison prepared to bid a fervent welcome today to Crown Prince, Olav, heir to the throne of Norway, and his Princess, Martha.

The honorary degree of doctor of laws will be awarded the Prince by the University of Wisconsin at the baccalaureate exercises Monday morning.

MOTHER IS HELD AS BABY'S KILLER

FREMONT, O., June 19 (AP)—Prosecutor A. L. Hyzer announced he would file today a first degree murder charge against Mrs. Velma Baker Fink, confessed slayer of her ten-weeks-old baby, Haldon Fink, whom she first reported "kidnaped," and whose body was found in a creek.

Sheriff H. L. Myers, to whom she made an oral confession late Saturday night, said Mrs. Fink was too upset for further questioning last night, and that because of her condition two women were sworn as special jail matrons to watch her.

The 22-year-old divorcee admitted, the sheriff said, that she took her son from her parents' home in nearby Clyde, O., last Tuesday night, drove about four miles out of town and threw the blanket-wrapped child from a bridge into Green Creek.

Two deputy sheriffs found the body in the stream the next day after Mrs. Fink reported the child abducted.

Prosecutor Hyzer credited a lie detector with providing the "break" in the case. He said after she told unknown falsehoods she was given the reaction of the detector, strapped to her arm, which registered pulse and respiration by a red line on a graph.

E. G. Robinson, lie detector expert, told her "when you get up every morning and look in the mirror, you will be looking at the woman who killed your baby."

She agreed to tell the whole story to Sheriff Myers, and later said:

"I knew they were going to use the lie detector again and I would have to tell some time. "I've got it all off my chest now."

The child's father, Ervin Fink, who she divorced June 6 on grounds of gross neglect, said he would visit Mrs. Fink in jail today.

"I still think a lot of her, and I forgive her," he said.

FIND FALLEN FLIER DEAD

DAYTON, O., June 19 (INS)—A five-hour search by two boys after they saw a plane drop 12 miles northwest of Dayton ended today in the discovery of the body of Lieut. F. O. Redetzke, of Wausau, Wis.

IN CUSTODY—Mrs. Velma Baker Fink is escorted to Fremont, O., county jail by Sheriff H. L. Myers, right, and her brother, Edwin Baker, after allegedly confessing to the kidnap-slaying of her 10-weeks-old son, Haldon Fink.

Clipper Ends 'Preview Hop' In France With News Folk

ABOARD ATLANTIC CLIPPER, En Route Marseilles, June 19—With a roar of her 6000 horsepower engines, the giant Pan-American Airways flying boat got away today on the last leg of her historic "inspection flight" from America to the old world with 18 newspaper folk aboard.

We made a smooth takeoff from the Tagus river at Lisbon at 3:04 a. m. E. D. T. Lisbon first saw us on Sunday, 23 hours and 56 minutes after we left Port Washington, N. Y.

The skipper set a course around Spain by way of the Bay of Biscay, a distance of 1055 miles from Lisbon to Marseilles.

As our destination neared, I became acutely aware for the first time of the magnitude and importance of our adventure.

We are pioneering, there's no getting away from that, no matter how hard-boiled and blase we try to be about this flight. Over the trail we, the first non-technical, non-professional fliers to cross the great wastes of water and unfriendly land that lie between us and home, have come, others will follow and transatlantic passenger traffic will become a reality.

It is difficult to realize that in only 22 hours and 49 minutes of actual flying time one finds oneself in another world, remote from America in language, character and custom.

BULLETIN

MARSEILLE, France, June 19 (AP)—The Atlantic Clipper "preview flight" ended at 3:22 a. m. (10:22 a. m. EDT) today when the big craft landed at Marignone airport. Eighteen American journalists were transferred from the flying boat to an Air France ferry plane for a two-hour flight to Paris. In the capital a formal welcome for them had been arranged by officials of the government, Air France and Pan American Airways.

DEATH CALLS LAST ONE ON JIMMY FOXX FAN

By decision of the Great Umpire, little Kenneth Barry was "safe home" today.

Safe home in that Happy Land where pain and suffering are no more and where boys who want to go to baseball games never have to toss feverishly in a hospital bed, week after week, too sick even to listen to the radio.

DEATH IS WINNER

Kenneth Barry, 15-year-old son of Atty. John J. Barry, of Everett, died in Central hospital, Somerville, in the little white room where, two weeks ago, he told Jimmy Foxx, slugging Red Sox first baseman:

"I'm gonna get well, Jimmy, just like you did when you were so sick a couple of years back.

"I'm gonna be out there at Fenway Park again, rooting for you and the Sox and watching you sock out those swell homers."

Big, suntanned Jimmy Foxx took Kenneth Barry's thin white hand in his own huge brown one.

"Sure, you'll get better, kid," Foxx said.

And he managed to make his deep voice full-throated and hearty.

But Jimmy Foxx had talked with the doctors. And he knew Kenneth Barry would never sit again on the bleacher slopes, in the sunshine, adding his shrill yip to the roar of the shirt-sleeved crowds.

Foxx was paying a debt of gratitude when he visited Kenneth Barry in the hospital. For at the time of Foxx's own sickness in 1937, Kenneth had written him:

"Dear Jimmy: Hope you ain't awful sick and will soon be back slamming 'em against the fence, like I used to see you."

That letter, and others like it, scrawled in unformed schoolboy hands, helped Jimmy Foxx win his fight for health.

But nothing—not even Jimmy Foxx' visit—could cure the heart ailment that harnessed Kenneth Barry to a white iron cot, with hammers pulsing in his brain and pain, in great scalding waves, blacking out even baseball game memories and dreams.

So, at last, the Great Umpire called the game.

After Kenneth Barry was "safe home."

WON'T FORGET VOICE

Jimmy Foxx was told about Kenneth Barry's death. The big Sox first-sacker wasn't sure if his duty schedule would or wouldn't leave him free to go to Kenneth's funeral from Immaculate Conception Church, Everett, tomorrow.

But of one thing, Jimmy Foxx was certain.

He'd never go to bat again without hearing, deep inside him somewhere, little Kenneth Barry's shrill yip of encouragement, echoing from the bleachers with the roar of the shirt-sleeved crowd.

Famous Grads of '14 In Harvard Reunion

Harvard's "Famous Fourteeners" began to gather today on their old stamping grounds, headed by Governor Saltonstall and James Bryant Conant as two of the many members who have made their mark since graduation.

More than 1200 men and members of their families are expected to check in finally to relive the scenes of 25 years ago.

The home of President Conant is being made headquarters for the 1914 men, and today it was a scene of colorful activity as sons of the class were introduced to the daughters—all wearing the class colors and 1914 bands on their hats.

Registration offices were in the Harvard freshman union, and at the same place the veterans of the first year had luncheon.

HAVE BUSY PROGRAM

This afternoon was held a general forum, opened by President Conant, and at 4 p. m. was scheduled a memorial service in Memorial chapel for members of the famous class who have died.

Tea was on the card for 5 p. m. at the home of President and Mrs. Conant, opposite the freshman union, and tonight the 25-year-men and their families will be entertained with a show.

It will be a four-day reunion for Old 1914 and it is believed the class may break the all-time attendance record.

Tomorrow will find the class at the Hotel Preston, Swampscott, for an all-day outing, returning in time to have refreshments at the Chestnut Hill home of Governor and Mrs. Saltonstall.

WILL ATTEND POPS

Dinner at Symphony Hall and attendance at the Pops Concert will complete the Tuesday schedule.

From all parts of the world, 1914 men are assembling, with the Rev. James C. Manry of Allahabad, India, and the Rev. Lindley H. Miller of San Mateo, Cal., two of the distantly-located classmates, conducting today's memorial service.

Another arrival today was Nicholas Roosevelt of New York, nephew of the late President Theodore Roosevelt and distant relative of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

While he was an undergraduate at Harvard, Roosevelt lived on the exclusive Gold Coast, was one of the organizers of the Harvard Opera Association and a member of several exclusive clubs.

On his graduation, he was appointed an instructor of history, but resigned that job almost immediately, when the World War broke out, in order to go abroad, to be at the scene of action.

He has been a consistent and bitter critic of New Deal policies.

25TH REUNION—Arriving in Boston aboard the S. S. New York, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Roosevelt of New York City, believe in being a little ahead of time. They'll attend the 25th reunion of the Harvard class of 1914, of which Mr. Roosevelt was a member.

Cahill, Dr. Gallup Awarded Degrees At Tufts College

Lieutenant-Governor Cahill and Dr. George Gallup, founder of the American Institute of Public Opinion, today were awarded honorary degrees at the 83d annual commencement exercises at Tufts College.

More than 500 degrees were awarded students in the departments of liberal arts, Jackson, engineering, religion, medical and the dental schools. The commencement speaker was Dr. Gallup.

Lieutenant Governor Cahill was awarded a bachelor of arts degree by Dr. Marston Balch, who described him as "a student at Tufts until his study was interrupted by patriotic service in the World War."

Graduating students who represented their various schools with commencement addresses included Charles Edward Stearns, son of Dean A. Warren Stearns of the Tufts Medical School, speaking on "Man in the Expanding Universe" for the School of Liberal Arts; Miss Perals Proctor of Babylon, N. Y., speaking on "College Has Not Been Wasted," representing Jackson College and Stanley Steiar of Somerville, speaking on "The Preparation for Medicine" for the Medical School.

Wellesley

President Mildred H. McAffee today conferred degrees upon 265 Wellesley College seniors at the institution's 61st commencement, featured by an address by Dr. Stephen Duggan, director of the Institute of International Education.

It was announced that the college has received $142,607 this year in bequests and gifts, the largest a bequest of $60,000 from the estate of Elizabeth P. Whiting, sister of Sarah Frances White, a student in 1884-85.

Dr. Duggan warned that the danger of the axis powers to the western hemisphere lay in their absorption of islands in the Atlantic, Pacific and Caribbean now belonging to peaceful and essentially democratic powers.

Referring to Germany, Italy and Japan generally but to Germany specifically, Dr. Duggan urged a reinterpretation of the Monroe Doctrine to cover the sovereignty of the islands as a means of preventing the ingression of totalitarianism.

Dr. Douglas Horton, secretary of the General Council of Congregational Churches, told the Wellesley College senior class of which his daughter, Margaret, is a member, that:

"As you keep in touch with God's creative spirit, you will be sustained in the grandeur of that personality for which God designed you. I shall think of each one of you in your community standing for righteousness and freedom as Joan of Arc did long ago because you like her, will be in touch with the Living One."

Brown

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 19 (AP)—Brown University conferred honorary degrees of doctor of laws today upon Sumner Welles, under secretary of state, and Associate Justice Owen J. Roberts of the United States Supreme Court.

They were among nine honored at the university's 171st annual commencement when President Henry M. Wriston conferred 379 degrees in course.

Other honorary degree recipients:

Doctor of Laws—Dr. Vannevar Bush, president of the Carnegie Institution, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Helen M. Danforth, president of the Rhode Island School of Design; Dr. Albert D. Mead, professor of biology emeritus and former vice-president of Brown.

Doctor of Letters—Dr. William S. Learned of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching; Halsey W. Wilson, New York publisher.

Doctor of Divinity—Rev. C. Ivar Hellstrom, assistant minister of the Riverside Church, New York.

Master of Arts—Eric C. Wendelin, consul in the Department of State who directed the evacuation of Americans from Madrid in 1936.

Dartmouth

HANOVER, N. H., June 19—District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey of New York and William C. Bullitt today were among 11 holding honorary degrees from Dartmouth College, awarded at the institution's 170th annual commencement.

In his address to the class of 1939, President Hopkins urged seniors to avoid "the welters of self-commiseration." He told them to remain "the master of your own thinking" and not "yield to the easily acquired vogue of defeatism which will be continually thrust upon you."

Northeastern

Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, pastor of Christ Church, New York City, was the commencement speaker at Northeastern University today when degrees were awarded graduates by President Frank Palmer Speare.

Chief marshall for the commencement exercises was Professors Everett C. Marston, Roland Porter, Alfred J. Ferretti and Stanley Estes.

WOMAN, 69 FELLED BY GAS, SAVED

WORCESTER, June 19—Locked in her gas-filled apartment, a 69-year-old woman was rescued from possible death today by two young women who broke down the apartment door.

Taken to City hospital in an ambulance summoned by one of her rescuers, Mrs. Lydia Coxon, Kingsbury street, was placed in a respirator, and half an hour later physicians said she would recover.

Mrs. Eileen Granger, who lives on the first floor, heard moaning from the second floor apartment, and knowing the elderly woman who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Vida Broman, and a grandson, had been ill, Mrs. Granger went upstairs.

Running down to the street, she called a passerby, a Mrs. Boudreau, and the two women succeeded in forcing open the door.

9 Killed, 60 Injured In Minn. Tornado

MINNEAPOLIS, June 19 (AP)—A tornado that howled across 25 miles of the countryside near here Sunday afternoon killed nine persons, injured upwards of 60, and wrecked an estimated $500,000 worth of property.

The death list, at first placed at 10, was reduced today when Walter Israel, 28, of Anoka, Minn., returned home. He said he had been unable to reach the town through the storm, and officials had listed him among the dead when he could not be found.

CAMP FOR REFUGEES

The National Guard, meanwhile, set up a refugee encampment to provide food and shelter for those whose homes were wiped out by the storm, and guardsmen and volunteers poked about in the wreckage, seeking possible undiscovered victims.

Sections of seven towns—Corcoran, Maple Grove, Champlin, Anoka, Cedar, St. Francis and Bethel—lying from 15 to 30 miles west and northwest of here were damaged with Anoka, a town of some 5000, suffering most seriously. There 40 to 50 buildings were demolished and five persons killed.

FAMILY OF 4 KILLED

The dead included a family of four whose automobile ran headlong into the wind near Corcoran. The auto was hurled several hundred feet and demolished. Bodies of the occupants were scattered in a field.

All the others were killed in the collapse of homes except Zimmerman. He was working in his garden when the tornado lifted him up, carried him several hundred feet and dashed him to death against a bridge.

The Lutheran Mission Church, where services had ended only 45 minutes earlier, a part of the Armory, a large two-story store, a garage and more than 40 houses were demolished in Anoka, the tornado cutting a two-block swath through the town.

FOREST FIRES ABATE

LAKE CITY, Colo., June 19 (AP)—Colorado's forest fires were under control today and cool weather acted as a damper on the hundreds of leftover spot blazes that dotted the burned areas.

JAVA VOLCANO ERUPTS

AMSTERDAM, June 19 (AP)—The volcanic island of Krakatoa erupted today, flinging lava to a height of 30,000 feet reports from nearby Java said. Krakatoa is in the Strait of Sunda between the Indian Ocean and the Java Sea. The great eruption of 1883 killed 36,500 persons.

Call 80 Aides Of Connolly

Ouster proceedings against John Patrick Connolly, clerk of Suffolk superior court, will be featured by testimony of at least 80 of Connolly's subordinates, Attorney Reuben L. Lourie, representing the Boston Bar Association, said today.

According to Lourie, order of notice, issued by the Supreme Court, was turned over to a deputy sheriff for service upon Connolly.

The Boston Bar Association, demanding a probe of Connolly's conduct of his office, alleged that employes were required to make cash "kick-back" of percentages of their salaries.

Callahan Ouster Trial to Be Set

Governor Saltonstall will present removal charges against Public Works Commissioner William F. Callahan late today or tomorrow and set the date for public ouster hearings, the Boston Evening American learned today.

A three-man commission named by the governor to make an "efficiency study" of the public works department charged millions had been "wasted" under Callahan's administration.

Callahan refused to resign at Saltonstall's request and said he was prepared to fight removal from his $7500-a-year job.

U. S. Acts to Ease Anglo-Jap Crisis

Japanese dispute over the Tientsin blockade.

Washington's offer was reportedly contained in a communication from the United States government handed to the Japanese foreign minister this afternoon by American Charge D'Affaires Eugene H. Dooman.

The name of Admiral Harry Ervin Yarnell, commander of the Atlantic Asiatic fleet, was mentioned as likely to be appointed arbitrator.

Dooman, according to authoritative reports, was informed by a foreign office spokesman that Japan did not wish to carry out drastic measures of isolation of the foreign concessions threatened by Tokyo unless the British show a more reasonable attitude.

Japan is perfectly willing to "cooperate with the English," the spokesman was reported as having advised Dooman, if the British manifest a "willingness."

Britain Seeks Basis To End Crisis

LONDON, June 19 (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain announced today talks were being held simultaneously in London and Tokyo in an effort to find a basis for settlement of the Tientsin dispute.

Chamberlain told Commons that Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax had conferred with the Japanese ambassador and that Sir Robert Leslie Craigie, British ambassador in Tokyo, was trying to clarify the situation with the Japanese government.

"His Majesty's government cannot but believe that the Japanese government share their own desire not to widen the area of disagreement or to render more acute an already difficult situation," Chamberlain said.

"At the same time they are fully alive to the reaction to the present dispute on the position of the British and international settlements in China."

In this connection Chamberlain said Britain was maintaining "close touch with the French and American governments."

U. S. Women Defy Jap Police at Barricades

TIENTSIN, June 19 (INS)—Mrs. H. D. Rodger, United States citizen, and a sister who is British by marriage, showed the Japanese-dominated Chinese police at the Tientsin barricades they can't shove Americans around today.

Mrs. Rodger and her sister, upon attempting to enter the British concession, were stopped by the Chinese. They were told to go to the end of a long queue of Orientals and wait their turn.

The sisters glared at the police, looked at the line, and walked off—to re-enter the concession by another route.

Mass Poisoning Toll Spreads in China

SHANGHAI, June 19 (Monday) (AP)—Victims of a mass poisoning episode among Chinese and Japanese officials at Nanking were increased to three today, according to Chinese language newspaper reports, with the death of Liang Hung-Tze, premier of the Japanese-supported government.

Observers pointed out that if the report were true the outstanding figure in Japan's efforts to inaugurate Chinese governments in Japanese-occupied areas of China had been removed.

First Lady's Letter Defends Working Wives

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the President, defended working wives today with a suggestion that discrimination against the employment "of one group" might make the United States "a fascist nation which tells one when to work, or how."

Her statement was contained in a letter made public by Miss Florence Birmingham, president of the Massachusetts Women's Political Club and campaigner against the employment of married women in government office. She had written a protest to Mrs. Roosevelt.

Mrs. Roosevelt's reply follows:

"I do not think that the class of citizens which you mention is protected or coddled. If they did not work, others in a great majority of cases would go hungry.

"Do you wish to become a Fascist nation which tells one when to work or how? As soon as you discriminate against one group, that discrimination very often cannot be controlled and spreads to others."

Miss Birmingham replied by challenging Mrs. Roosevelt to a debate.

18 ARABS KILLED BY BOMBS

JERUSALEM, June 19 (AP)—Eighteen Arabs were killed, it was learned, and 24 seriously hurt by bomb explosions today in the Haifa market place.

The Haifa telephone exchange and street telephone booths were damaged considerably.

The establishment of strict lines of police and troops about the scene of the explosion prevented the details of the damage being given out until the task of taking the dead and injured to hospitals was completed.

Curley Warns Public Of Stock Fakers

The opportunity boys are hopping on his Nevada gold mine, former Governor James M. Curley informed police today, and word has come to him that attempts are being made to sell stock in the mine. Well, this is an illegal attempt, Curley declared, because there isn't any of his stock for sale.

He has it all and intends to keep it. Police sent out a teletype warning for other departments to be on the lookout for the bogus stock salesmen.

Damon E. Hall Heads Sallies' Fund Drive

At a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce of the Greater Boston Advisory Board of the Salvation Army, J. Leonard Johnson, chairman, announced today the 1939-40 general campaign chairman would be Doman E. Hall, president of the Boston Bar Association.

In accepting the leadership of the 1939-40 annual maintenance appeal, Mr. Hall urged the board and officials of the Salvation Army to get into an early organization spirit as the big job approaches. He said he was pleased to announce that William G. O'Hare, executive director of the Boston Welfare Department, had agreed to serve as vice-chairman.

Raise Fund to Push Doll Girl Death Quiz

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., June 19 (INS)—Men who work in the mines and who know little about "fancy" law dug down in their pockets today to see that justice is done the memory of little Joan Stevens, "doll girl" shot to death by a state policeman.

Nickels, dimes, quarters and even crumpled dollar bills poured into a legal fund as Attorney James C. McCready, representing Joan's family and the Miners' Citizen's Committee, began his investigation into the strange death of the 14-year-old grammar school girl.

The defense of Corporal Benjamin Franklin today remained one of self-defense. Franklin claims that Joan drew a gun while riding with him and that he blasted away eight times in the belief that she would have shot him if he had not shot first.

CRITICS BLAST POLICE

Patrolman Edward Swatji, who was also in the car, backs up Franklin's story.

But the answering accusation was that Joan's "dangerous automatic" was a toy cap pistol and that the officers could have ascertained that fact before their ride began.

As to the purpose of the ride, the claim is made that Joan telephoned the Tamaqua barracks of the motor police and said that she could give information on a bank robbery plot. Franklin and Swatji claim to have gone for her in the patrol car as a result of that call.

Criticism of the police is also based on the fact that Joan's parents were not immediately notified of her death.

NEIGHBORS ACCUSED

They spent a long night searching for her and although they heard that a girl had been killed, they did not connect their daughter's disappearance with the incident.

It was a neighbor who finally broke the news to them that the bullet-riddled body at a local mortician's parlors was that of Joan.

A side development to the death of the grammer school girl was the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vrabel, former neighbors of the Stevens family, who are charged with having taken Joan to New York last April for immoral purposes.

The Vrabels have denied that they had any intention other than to show the little girl the big town.

Critically Hurt At Woburn Fire

Jeremiah Donovan, 45, a Woburn fireman, was in critical condition at Choate Memorial Hospital today from injuries suffered in battling a blaze which destroyed the Jaquith grain mill, Prospect street, Woburn, with loss of $25,000. Two alarms were sounded when the flames threatened other industrial buildings in the district.

Donovan suffered internal injuries and a scalp wound when buried under an avalanche of several tons of grain. Fellow workmen dug him out and rushed him to the hospital.

James H. Doherty, a call fireman, was overcome by smoke. He was revived at the same hospital and sent home.

Goldfields, Alberta, Threatened by Fire

EDMONTON, Alberta, June 19 (INS)—A forest fire threatens to destroy the goldfields, a mushroom gold mining town on Lake Athabasca.

Rangers and volunteers from the town were fighting the fire.

ASK WAGE MINIMUM 32½ CENTS

WASHINGTON, June 19 (AP)—Sixty representatives of labor and industry appealed today to Administrator Elmer F. Andrews of the wage-hour act to adopt a recommendation for a 32½-cent minimum wage for the textile industry.

Chiefly from New England, the witnesses at the first public hearing on the textile industry committee's recommended 32½-cent wage included Governor William Vanderbilt of Rhode Island and Representative Rogers (R.) of Massachusetts, only member of Congress listed for appearance.

Large delegations from Lowell, New Bedford, and Fall River, Mass.; Providence and Pawtucket, R. I., and Lewiston, Me., supported the recommendation.

Labor officials estimated public hearing would continue for three or four days. At its conclusion Andrews will go to Atlanta, Ga., to hear about 115 spokesmen for industry and the Southern States who are opposed to the proposed wage and are seeking a lower minimum wage or a 2½ cent differential.

CARRY NATION AID DIES

WICHITA, Kas., June 19 (AP)—Mrs. Myra McHenry, 91, associate of the late Carry Nation during her saloon wrecking days in Kansas, is dead here.

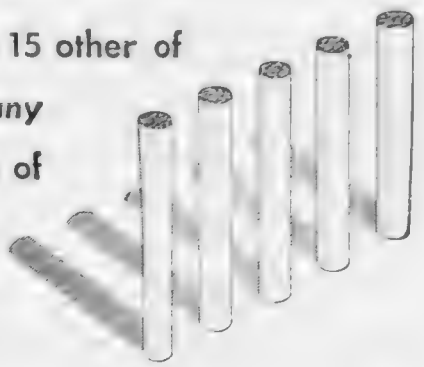
5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!



SEEING IS BELIEVING!

CAMEL'S expensive tobaccos, so inexpensive to smoke—is welcome news to millions who are keen for the smoking thrill of finer tobaccos! Naturally, a slower-burning cigarette, Camel, gives more and better smoking for the money. And now the impartial research of a leading laboratory proves that Camels burn far slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands. Here are 3 cigarette facts discovered by this scientific group:

1. Camels were found to contain MORE TOBACCO BY WEIGHT than the average for the 15 other of the largest-selling brands.
2. CAMELS BURNED SLOWER THAN ANY OTHER BRAND TESTED—25% SLOWER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME OF THE 15 OTHER OF THE LARGEST-SELLING BRANDS! By burning 25% slower, on the average, Camels give smokers the equivalent of 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!
3. In the same tests, CAMELS HELD THEIR ASH FAR LONGER than the average time for all the other brands.

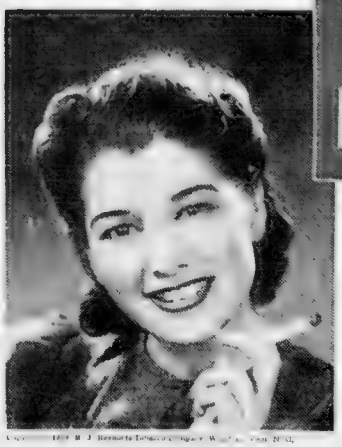
A BATTERY OF "SMOKERS"
used in [illegible] laboratory tests to [illegible] throat irritation, among the [illegible] selling brands. [illegible] Camel burns slower than the average of the 15 other brands tested, giving Camel smokers the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack!



SMOKING IS BELIEVING!

Right now—as the summer season of extra smoking starts—begin enjoying the cigarette of extra smokes! Everyone can afford the coolness, the true mildness, the ripe, delicate taste and fragrance of smoking pleasure at its best. Yes, enjoy more smoking for your money, and remember the added bonus of Camel's costlier tobaccos. Try Camels—America's favorite and thriftiest way to true smoking enjoyment!

THEN WHAT? What can we believe . . . build on? Where can we find comfort and anchorage for our sinking souls?

For millions of years, men have tried to answer that question, out of their own pity and for their own healing. But, save in the story of that first triumphant Easter, I have yet to see an answer as strong and reas-

BURNING ACHING FEET

"Oil your feet," ordered Napoleon to his soldiers before a battle or long march. He was a great believer in foot oils. Science now has scientifically compounded oils and creams that are more helpful than Nature ever intended human feet to be.

Many a time—overnight—you can take out the sting—the soreness, the burning and aching from your poor distressed feet by giving them a good rubbing with penetrating medicated OMEGA OIL.

Sleep soothed and refreshed morning foot agony is on its way—thousands know this—you ought to know it—35 cents. Oil your feet!

CHAPTER TWO

The fundamentals that go to make a successful ball player are the same that go to make a sound athlete in any sport—knowledge of the rudiments of the game, an ability to execute plays instinctively, and a positive belief in your ability to do the latter.

The last-named essential, of course, is what we call confidence.

Man Who Wishes To Live as a Legend

TAKE A LETTER. Take this one. It comes from a California economic royalist named Tyrus Raymond Cobb, who used to do odd outfield chores for the Detroit Tigers when baseball was a game of limber legs and nimble wit instead of pure, muscular might. Ty writes John Lane, promoter of the Veteran of Foreign Wars "Old Timers" game in Boston next July 12. All other members of baseball's hall of fame have accepted Lane's invitation to play. But not Ty! He tells why he will not put on his mouse-colored uniform and make his creaky legs wobble over the grass again.

AUSTEN LAKE

He writes. ". . . When I quit baseball I made a pledge with myself never to play again. I think it sad to see those grand old boys who were so great in their prime, going through the motions now that they are slow, clumsy, gray and decrepit. So forgive me for refusing to play.

"I know I could have played several more seasons in the American League at the time I quit. But it would have been trading on my reputation. My legs were tired after 24 years in the major leagues and I wanted to retire while my lifetime batting average was still over .300. You see I felt a great pride in my record. So I decided that I would never go out there again when I could do nothing but make feeble motions. I wanted the fans to remember Cobb as he WAS, not as he would be NOW—a pathetic, stiff-jointed, muscle bound oldster who staggers around. But if I can be there in street clothes I will be glad to oblige."

COBB WAS ALWAYS A SENSITIVE, a queerly distant character who had few intimates and gave no confidences. As a manager he had small patience with the failures of his men and never could realize that they lacked the natural endowments to copy feats which were second nature to himself. His latter life—one of almost monastic seclusion, bespeaks this! He plays a little golf, attends to investments and holdings which, before the panic, he had run close into a million. But he shies away from public gatherings, endorses no advertising, makes no speeches, writes no magazine articles and permits no public use of his name. He lacked the social instinct which made Babe Ruth nothing less than first in the hearts of his countrymen.

This is not disparage Cobb — but to analyze him. For almost all the former Greats of baseball delight are basking once more in the spotlight of popular favor. They like to turn out in their old woolens and joggle through their beloved scene once more, to be poured over with the people's affection and turn back their clocks. But not Cobb! He who always made Pride his ruling passion, cannot comprise with that paramount emotion now. (Viz, "I want the fans to remember Cobb as he WAS, not as he would be NOW). His monument is in the memory of the people.

COBB'S LIKE WILL NEVER BE SEEN in baseball again. For his all-round skill when baseball was a finely coordinated balance between base-running, chop-hitting, throwing to the plate, alert wit and a hundred little trickaries, would be lost in the present game which centers on free swinging from the end of the handle and playing for runs in clusters. His era passed with the rabbit ball and the Ruthian clout. Yet no man can deny that he was the greatest ball player, past, present or future. There is only one of his peculiar mould!

Pals Ask Woody Run For A. A. U.

PRINCETON, N. J., June 19 (AP) — Possibility that Sydney Wooderson might be persuaded to run in the National A. A. U. meet at Lincoln, Nebr., July 3 and 4 to clear up the question of mile supremacy was raised today by an aide of the British runner.

When he runs in England, said Banks, "he never lets anyone get near him. I told him he should have done this when Blaine Rideout came u[p]

Compressed Air Plate Duster New Ump Aid

WICHITA, Kas., June 19 (AP)—Umpires protested when Paul Fair disclosed his invention of a pneumatic home plate duster.

The contraption, they said, would rob baseball of one of its traditions—whiskbrooming home plate. Worse, it would rob the umps of a timely excuse to get away from an arguing player.

Fair, umpire of the 1939 semi-pro tournament here in August tested the gadget today.

Now he's ready for his critics. If a player starts an argument the arbiter turns a lever. A cloud of dust rises and noise from the compressed air drowns out the players' words.

Horsemen Also Make Mistakes

Harp Weaver and Little Banner

TOM THORP, steward at Suffolk Downs, is convinced that trainers do not know when their horses are ready to step into the winner's circle.

"When it came up mud on Saturday," said Tom, "Trainer Barnett wanted to scratch Harp Weaver, while Trainer Brouse asked permission to withdraw Little Banner. Both trainers declared their horses couldn't run in the mud.

"We were obliged to deny both requests on account of the short fields. Harp Weaver then won to pay $16.40 while Little Banner staged a surprise victory to pay $29.80. The owners of the horses were rewarded with the purses. Looks as if even the horsemen don't know when their thoroughbreds are ready to win."

I played Stage Door against Harp Weaver on a trip from Dan Cupid, while I took Tuscco over Little Banner.

Sorry Time, Estate and Modship man were my other wrong guesses. But Tuscco and Clodion got me dinner money.

Jockey J. Rosen should be given much of the credit for Clodion's victory. He took R. A. Moore's colors out front at the start, and he held Clodion together in the stretch, when Pagliacci made his terrific bid for victory. Did anybody see War Minstrel?

Tapering Off in Race Track Betting

THE FINAL 30 days of the Suf- [illegible] casional race they can't bear the sight of. This will result in more sane wagering. Nobody should ever bet more money than he can afford to lose.

Mort Mahony says 65 per cent of the people that go to the races are $2 bettors which is a good thing for the future of the game. Plungers must go broke, and in their collapse they are always likely to pull down innocent people with them.

Calls It a Shame

It is really a shame to send Tony Galento against Joe Louis in New York on June 28. Galento has not any more chance against Louis than I would have, and I would not have any. Louis will knock Tony out in the second round. I would not pay a nickle to see this fight.

Coach For Pitchers

I like Joe Cronin, and think he is a brilliant ball player and a great manager. I believe, however, Joe is trying to do too much work. He should have a coach for his pitchers who would have complete charge of the flinging staff. I believe such a system would get better results than is now the case at Fenway Park.

Sox, Tigers Revive Race

Show New Life To Needle A. L. Flag Interest

By JOE CASHMAN

While they may give an occasional indication to the contrary, our Red Sox are very partial to that second place berth they've been occupying since August 23 last.

It looked bad for the Cronin-men 24 hours back. They had lost four straight games to the Tigers. They hadn't had a pitcher go the distance in a week. They hadn't been hitting.

And they had a doubleheader assignment with the third-place Cleveland Indians who were only a half game behind and licked Bob Feller and Willis Hudlin, primed to wipe out the deficit.

In short, the Back Bay boys were right on the spot.

Yet, before the afternoon was over they were sitting pretty listening to the cheers of 32,000 customers.

Sorry slinging suddenly became superb. Mediocre hitting suddenly became devastating.

The same Feller who had whitewashed them with one hit in his only previous local appearance this season and had later toyed with them in Cleveland failed to finish in bidding for his 11th win in the opener.

Fred "Lefty" Ostermueller, making his first start since May 28, bested Cleveland's boy wonder 5 to 4.

And back on triumph trail once more, the natives laughed at a cheap three-run lead the Redskins gained at the expense of Robert Moses Grove in the first frame of an abbreviated eight inning nightcap.

With Old Mose pitching scoreless ball the rest of the way, his mates saw to it that he gained his sixth decision of the campaign, 5 to 3.

So on this off-day the Hose second-place worries are gone with the wind, temporarily, at least.

They're now 2½ games up on the Indians, White Sox and Tigers and, incidentally, they've reduced the Yanks' lead from 12 to 10½ games, which, regardless of its importance, comes under the heading of encouragement.

That Tiger from Detroit is the club right now for the Sox and also the Yanks to fear.

The Bengals have oodles of everything, excepting possibly pitching, and that's not too bad with a guy like Bridges (8-1) around.

They've won 10 of their last 11 starts and 16 of their last 20, including three out of five from the Yanks, while climbing from seventh into a virtual tie for third.

They're as dangerous on the road as at home. They're as cocky against stronger rivals as against weaker foes.

The Sox received a blistering from many corners, including this one, for their recent failures against the Detroiters.

Maybe that censure was undeserved.

Maybe it was a case of the Tigers being too hot to handle rather than of the Croninmen being below par.

At any rate, not a few local fans must have felt that way about it in view of the near-capacity crowd which stormed the Fens yesterday.

It was a great tribute to the Croninmen and the noble athletes appreciated it no end, as the scores proved.

Now if they'll only keep up the good work and the Tigers will stay torrid, perhaps the American League will yet have a real race for the pennant.

ALL TOGETHER, JUMP—Up and over the difficult first barrier of the steeplechase at Aqueduct go three graceful leapers, in almost flawless stride. No. 7 is One Round, No. 4 Big Rebel, the third is Costermoor. Sumatra missed the picture, but won the race.

LOU FETTE SETTING HILL PACE

CINCINNATI, O., June 19—Boston's Bees gave this town for Chicago tonight after Milburn Shoffner and Ricky Waters have pitched the last game of the series, but the memory of Lou Fette will live long in the memory of the hardy 27,000 fans who sat through the rainy Sabbath double header.

The Reds won the first game, 12 to 6, but were held to one hit by the Bees veteran in the second, 5 to 0. Harry Craft got that in the fifth inning.

Lou Fette

It was Fette's eighth victory of the season, as against two defeats.

He had pitched two three-hitters earlier in the season but he never was better than he was against the Reds. And his opponent was Paul (9-1) Derringer.

Only four men reached first base against him and one second. Lou was master all the way, so much so that Casey Stengel is thinking of getting all his players married. Since Lou became a benedict he has pitched a three-hitter and a one-hitter.

Fette now has pitched 80⅓ innings this year. He has yielded only 49 hits and 18 runs. If he keeps on at his present pace, he'll establish a modern earned run record.

Fette got good assistance from little Harold Warstler, who knocked in four of the five runs the Bees scored. His double in the eighth cleared the sacks and cemented victory for Lou.

Harvard Can Tie For College Title By Defeating Yale

By The Associated Press

The annual Yale-Harvard baseball series, a matter that has interested only students and alumni of the two colleges in most recent years, will decide the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball League championship this week.

With the season over for all the other five league members, it's up to these two to decide tomorrow and Wednesday whether Harvard will share the top honors with Cornell.

The Crimson, by winning both games, can equal Cornell's season record of nine victories and three defeats.

If Yale can win twice, the Elis will jump from sixth place to fourth, passing Princeton and Pennsylvania.

LUPIEN BATTING LEADER

Cornell had a chance to clinch its first title in ten years last Saturday but couldn't prolong its record winning streak to ten straight games.

The Ithaca batsmen faded before the right-hand pitching of Johnny Lendo, Dartmouth sophomore, and collected only three hits as they took a 3-1 beating.

Hal Wonson, who will captain the Indians next season, moved from the mound to right field and drove in all three Dartmouth runs.

Lendo held George Polzer, Cornell batting ace, hitless. As a result, Polzer dropped to second place in competition for the Charles H. Blair bat, emblem of the individual batting title.

His average fell to .413 as compared to .432 for Harvard's Ulysses Lupien. Dick Trexler of Penn and Mark Hill of Princeton tied for third at .410.

Lendo also moved into a second place tie in the pitching list with three games won and one lost for a .750 average.

Wonson has a similar record, and Walt Sickles of Cornell, Saturday's loser, finished with six victories and two defeats. Jim Young of Cornell topped the list with three straight wins.

STEVENS SHELLACKED

In Saturday's only other game, Princeton gained its fourth-place tie with Penn by belting its old rival, Yale, 6 to 1, by smacking Al Stevens, the Elis' starting moundsman, for five runs in the first two innings.

The standing:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Cornell	9	3	.750
Harvard	7	3	.700
Dartmouth	8	4	.667
Pennsylvania	5	7	.417
Princeton	5	7	.417
Yale	4	6	.400
Columbia	2	10	.167

This week's games:
Tomorrow—Harvard at Yale; Wednesday—Yale at Harvard.

Decisions Given In Mat Show At Garden

While some of the bouts must necessarily be limited as to time, there will be a decision given in every one staged at the wrestling tournament Thursday night at the Garden.

Decision bouts have not been in vogue in Boston, but Promoter Paul Bowser has decided to give the new system a trial.

Ben Shalom, 264-pound champion of Palestine, meets Ernest Frank Heffner, tough and rough performer, in one of the co-features.

In the other co-feature, Steve (Crusher) Casey, champion of the world, faces Ed Don George, who held the title on two occasions.

Other bouts will include Gus Sonnenberg vs Dan O'Mahony, Marvin Westenberg vs. Yvon Robart, Bob Russell vs. Manuel Cortez, Charley Strack vs. Hymie Olsen, Whitey Grovo vs. Jim Casey and Pat Reilly vs. Tom Casey.

Swifty SAYS:

"I kinda like it this year being out 8 feet on the arm. Gee . . . but it's cool on a warm nite. Sometimes I get a chance to peek around and watch those greyhound upstarts straining every muscle in that game of tag they play with me. They may have a lot of fun chasing me, but I get most of the cool breezes."

FIRST RACE—FUTURITY
(First Half Daily Double)

BALCOE—CHAS YONKER—SMOKY PASS

PP.	Dog	Odds Wt.	Owner
11	Balcoe	3-1 65	T. Boland
1	Chas Yonker	4-1 61	W. C. Sparks

Balcoe has schooled well enough to warrant top billing though the fit will be tight for Chas Yonker and Smoky Pass. Each have early foot and could cause upsets.

SECOND RACE—FUTURITY

5	Young Mabel	8-1	54	Fred Palermo
6	Swing It	10-1	61	Hubert Bryant
7	Kneader	12-1	56	J. J. Gavin

Hi-Tone's schoolings indicate a score here tho the next two can made it close.

FOURTH RACE—FUTURITY
LITTLE MUTT—DREAMY EYES—SMASHING PORTHOS

2	Little Mutt	3-1	62	E. Harmon
3	Dreamy Eyes	4-1	61	F. B. Stutz
4	Sm'h'g Porthos	4-1	65	K. Stephenson
7	Eventl Laddie	8-1	72	J. J. Gavin
1	Dusty War	8-1	62	Fred Street
6	Who's Who	10-1	66	Jack Adams
5	Harvest Time	10-1	58	C. Eno
8	Clean Quick	12-1	55	T. J. Lippold

Little Mutt gets the call here as a result of its winter's work and some good schooling efforts. Dreamy Eyes should run well with Smashing Porthos always a threat.

FIFTH RACE—5-16 MILE
LOU ANN—CLEAN CARESS—SWEET COFFY

4	Lou Ann	3-1	54	Fred Palermo
6	Clean Caress	4-1	58	C. A. Rhodes
2	Sweet Coffy	4-1	65	Pat Conway
1	Clouded Auzzie	6-1	62	Jack Adams

5	Denver	10-1	66½	O. Dahlberg
7	Doering	12-1	67	W. Lee Bryant
8	Bright Ballad	15-1	62	T. Cook

Lou Ann rates only the break to win here from wire to wire. Clean Caress and Sweet Coffy should battle for the rest.

SIXTH RACE—FUTURITY
CRIMINAL COURT—JUBILANT—CONA MARSH

1	Criminal Court	3-1	64	Seekonk Kennel
3	Jubilant	4-1	61½	M. S. Sparks
	Cona Marsh	4-1	54	F. B. Stutz

	Curly Cutjrs	10-1	75	P and B Kennel
8	Side Wind	10-1	72	Jess Williams
7	Knack	12-1	65	Frank Line

The red blanket gives the top one here an edge which should be sufficient to bring it home before Jubilant. Cona Marsh has a world of speed but the bad box is no benefit.

SEVENTH RACE—5-16 MILE
GOLD MINE—TRAGEDY—INSTALLMENT

6	Gold Mine	3-1	69	G. H. Rogers
2	Tragedy	4-1	49	Fred Palermo

8	Medalia	10-1	69	K. Stephenson
8	Black Moon	12-1	64½	Geo. Lippold

Gold Mine fancies the outside and should make a race of it to finish. Tragedy can cause an upset with Installment a threat.

EIGHTH RACE—FUTURITY
RANAUGHARD—JERRY HICKS—MAD MONEY

1	Ranaughard	3-1	57	E. Rhine
2	Jerry Hicks	4-1	64	J. Highhouse

7	Miss Bailey	10-1	59	O and B Kennel
3	Bob Marshall	10-1	61	Clyde Eno
8	Traffic Glen	12-1	54	Frank Line

This should be the closest race on the card with either one of the top two equal to the task of winning. Mad Money might take it all.

NINTH RACE—5-16 MILE
BEAVERSTEIN—CLICK—MIDNIGHT LILLY

2	Beaverstein	3-1	59	F. B. Stutz
3	Click	4-1	62	Forge Spencer

7	Alma Darling	10-1	55	M. J. Gavin
4	Cr'der Caress	10-1	65	C. A. Rhodes
8	Bright Hope	12-1	59	K. Stephenson

Beaverstein takes the inside and should gallop to this field. Click can make a race of it with Midnight Lilly dangerous.
